History of Zionism. Zionism as an organized movement is generally considered to have been founded by Theodor Herzl in 1897. However, the history of Zionism began earlier and is related to Judaism and Jewish history. The Hovevei Zion, or the Lovers of Zion, were responsible for the creation of 20 new Jewish cities in Palestine between 1870 and 1897. Before the Holocaust, the movement's central aims were the re-establishment of a Jewish national home and cultural centre in Palestine by ...

History of Zionism - Wikipedia

Prior to World War I, Zionism represented only a minority of Jews, mostly from Russia but led by Austrians and Germans. It developed propaganda through orators and pamphlets, created its own newspapers, and gave an impetus to what was called a "Jewish renaissance" in letters and arts.

Zionism | Definition, History, Examples, & Facts | Britannica

The Zionist movement was created by Theodor Herzl in 1897, however the history of Zionism can be seen as beginning earlier and related to Judaism and Jewish history. Before the Holocaust the movement's central aims were the creation of a Jewish National Home and cultural centre in Palestine by facilitating Jewish migration.

The History of Zionism is an incredible book. It begins with an overview of the situation for Jews in Europe in the mid 1800's (to set the stage) and then proceeds to inform us about early Zionism and then later Zionist thinkers and movements. It is easy to read and interesting to read, but is scholarly at the same time.
