If you like theory in architecture and if you like to read about spaces, feelings and materials, Atmospheres will be the best book for you. Peter Zumthor make the architecture so abstract, easy to understand but also complicated to learn. It's a really nice book, I think this changed the way I understand some things in architecture.

Atmospheres are naked doses of shower gel that double up as a cosmic order of your choosing. Pinch the atmosphere between your fingers and tear open as you focus your mind on your goal, tipping the gel into your hand and washing all over. When you're done lathering up, the seaweed layer can be washed down the plug or popped in the compost.
