One of the poems I remember reading and enjoying in sixth grade was Jack Prelutsky's "The Average Hippopotamus": The average hippopotamus. is big from top to bottomus, It travels at a trotamus, And swims when days are hotamus. Because it eats a lotamus, It's practically a yachtamus, So it's a cinch to spotamus. The average hippopotamus.

Hippos – The Contemporary Poem

The common hippopotamus (Hippopotamus amphibius), or hippo is a large semi-aquatic mammal that is found wallowing in the rivers and lakes across sub-Saharan Africa. The name comes from the ancient Greek for "river horse" (????????????). But hippos are not related to horses at all—in fact, their closest living relatives may be pigs or whales and dolphins! There are two species of ...
