With the Green Star juicer there is a three stage process to juicing. The twin gears chop, mix and then press the fruit and veggies to extract maximum volume of juice. The chopping action means that you don't have to waste time by prepping juice and veggies and cutting them into smaller pieces.

All About the Green Star Juicer: Pros and Cons and Is it ...

The manual suggested that best results were to be obtained when produce is fed in slowly as this allows produce to come into contact with the magnetic field in between the gears for a longer period of time. The juice yield from the Green Star was good in both the apple and carrot tests and also with other produce.
