Three nights in a row, now, the same strange dreams. At least I thought they were at the time. Unnatural creatures in the woods, a spirit who lives in the lake and the really odd blending of dreams with reality. I think I'm losing my mind... * * * Living in the beautiful Pacific Northwest, Avalynn has everything she thought she wanted. She owns a successful art gallery and lives in a lakeside house. Having lost her parents a few years before, Avalynn considers her closest friends her family now. But everything changes when she starts seeing and hearing inexplicable things at the lake. She thought they were dreams, but physical evidence is mounting that proves they are real. She 's not sure who she can turn to. Will her friends believe her? And what about the mysterious and handsome Luke who just came into her life? Is he the source behind these strange occurrences? Or is he her savior? Avalynn soon discovers that life in the Dream Realm is equally as complicated, if not more so, than the real world. The realm overlay becomes so natural as the seamlessly moves between the two, she begins to wonder which is actually real. Or is it possible they're both real?

It has been a year of change since Gemma Doyle arrived at the foreboding Spence Academy. Having bound the wild, dark magic of the realms to her, Gemma has forged unlikely and unsuspected new alliances both with the headstrong Felicity and timid Ann. Kartik, the exotic young man whose companionship is forbidden, and the fearsome creatures of the realms. Now, as Gemma approaches her London debut, the time has come to test those bonds. As her friendship with Felicity and Ann faces its gravest trial, and with the Order grappling for control of the realms, Gemma is compelled to decide once and for all which path she is meant to take. Pulled forward by fate, the destiny Gemma faces threatens to set chaos loose, not only in the realms, but also upon the rigid Victorian society whose rules Gemma has both defied and followed. Where does Gemma really belong? And will she, can she, survive?

War has taken everything from me. My family. My home. My innocence. In a country blasted by war and wracked by economic hardship, a young orphan girl like me has very few options when it comes to survival. Thus, I do what I must to live, to eat, and I try very hard to not consider the cost to my soul. My heart is empty, and my existence brutal. The one impossibility in my life is love. And then I meet HIM.  War is hell. It takes a chunk out of a man's very soul to do the kinds of things war demands of you. You live with fear, you live with guilt, and you live with nightmares. If you haven't been through it, there's no understanding it. War leaves no room for love, no room for tenderness or softness. You gotta be hard, closed off, and ready to fight every moment of every day. Lose focus for a split second, and you're dead. Now the only thing that can save me is HER.
