7/13/07: Huck's Raft | KUER 90.1

[An] often fascinating and massively documented exploration of four centuries of American childhood... "Huck's Raft" is a work of scholarly integrity and humanist zeal., Steven Mintz' brilliant, wide-ranging, but remarkably concise study shows how complex an invention childhood has been in this country... The book is so good on the first 300 years or so of the story that it is somewhat surprising that Mintz is even more provocative on the last 50 years or so, especially on the most recent decade.
