culture and language, the new Sixth Edition of Mosaicos places culture up front and center, and everywhere in-between! NEW! A new form-focused activity follows the presentation of grammar. Students can do them in class with the instructor or as online homework before coming to class as all Comprendes activities are machine-gradable and include immediate feedback when completed within MySpanishLab. In these quick, form-focused activities students check that they are able to produce the new grammatical forms before moving to the contextualized and communicative activities. The continuing activity sequence moves students gradually from meaningful, form-focused activities towards production of open-ended, personalized communication. The activities focus attention on the communicative purpose of the linguistic structures while invoking culturally-relevant contexts. All activities require students to process meaning as well as form so that they develop skill in using their linguistic knowledge to gather information, answer questions, and resolve problems. For example, note that the even the form-focused activities require students to process meaning, not just fill in blank with

Designed with you in mind The ¡Anda! program is based on the National Foreign Language Standards. The five organizing principles (the 5C's) of the Standards for language teaching and learning are at the core of ¡Anda!: Communication, Cultures, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities. Each chapter opener identifies for the instructor where and in what capacity each of the 5C's are addressed. Teaching and Learning Experience The ¡Anda! program provides practical responses to the challenges today's Spanish instructors are facing. Its innovations center around three key areas:
