In Odinn's Child by Tim Severin, the old Norseman Thorgils tells the long tale of his life. The story begins with Thorgils birth, and follows him to many strange places, including the famed Vinland. It was difficult for me to enjoy this book at first. The story seemed to move very slowly, without any apparent central plot.

Odinn's Child: Viking 1 by Severin, Tim (ebook)

Viking Odinn's Child by Tim Severin, Timothy Severin. There were parts that I liked very much, but I found the main character a little lethargic. I liked the history lesson and the revealing of old customs was charming. However, I am an action person, and I like my main character to be proactive, inventive, and aggressive.

Odinn's Child: Viking 1 - Pan Macmillan AU

I had enjoyed Severin's Viking 1 - Odinn's Child, and continued the tale with Viking 2. I only have a few pages left, and can't wait to get through it - it has gotten tedious. Thorgils, now in his 20's, has survived so many deadly scrapes, it has become predictable and boring. I will not be venturing into Viking #3.
