This is used to amazing effect by their writer, arranger and conductor Robert Prizeman, whose genius produces the most stunning sound I have ever heard on a recording. The wonderful sound of the group of boy vocalists called LIBERA, who have sung all around the world in front of Presidents, the Pope, and several thousand fans, and who frequently appear on television and radio, is explored in this new book. This is the story of how it all started, from a small church choir in Norbury, South London in the 1970's, through to Angel Voices during the 1980's and 1990's, to what they are today as LIBERA. Under the guidance of the composer Robert Prizeman (known also for his role within the BBC's long-running religious television show, "Songs of Praise") the reader will learn how LIBERA has grown to become a household name across the world. Complete with photographs this book will be hard to put down, as the LIBERA story is told in full.

Robert William Service was a British-Canadian poet and writer. He was a bank clerk by trade, but spent long periods travelling in Western America and Canada. When his bank sent him to the Yukon, he was inspired by tales of the Klondike Gold Rush, and wrote two poems "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" and "The Cremation of Sam McGee", which showed remarkable authenticity and enjoyed immediate popularity. Encouraged by this, he quickly wrote more poems on the same themes, which were published as a collection Songs of a Sourdough.
