How to build your list for free and create a real online business that gets maximum results with minimum fuss... fast! Solo ads are when you pay someone with an email list to send an email to their subscribers promoting your website. Usually that'll be a squeeze page and your job is to capture their email addresses. Now you can market to them. You can sell them useful and relevant information and in return they'll pay your bills. Put food on the table and a roof over your house. A good deal really. Solo Ads are paid traffic and best of all, it's ultra-targeted traffic. For example if you have a product on Labrador Dogs and find someone with a list of pet owners then a small percentage of people might be interested. You get a little warmer if you find a list owner with subscribers only interested in dogs. Not a larger percentage will want what you have to say. If you find a email list purely for Labrador owners then that is ultra-targeted.

"Using Solo Ads For Traffic!" Solo ads are designed to basically promote a single ad to the subscribing list. These solo ads are often sent to all sources connected to the original feed with or without the recipients consent and can help bring you traffic. Many advertisers consider this style of ads to be more engaging and focused when compared to other styles. I want to start by giving you a background on solo ads. Here's how I define solo ads for the purpose of this training: a solo ad is an email advertisement that you will purchase from someone else in your niche that has an email list. That person will send your email advertisement out to their list recommending that their subscribers take a look at your ad. That's my formal definition of solo ads. When you think about purchasing a solo ad, you're purchasing an email that's going to be sent out to somebody who is in your niche that has subscribers on their list who meet your target market. In that email there is going to be either a link to an opt-in page so that people can become subscribers on your list, or, there will be a link to a sales page if you prefer to build your list with buyers instead of subscribers. I'm going to teach you how to find people in your niche from whom to purchase solo ads. I'll also give you some of the details for how you can continually grow your list over time through the use of these solo ads and much more!

Humans of New York and PostSecret, a collection of raw, urgent, and heartfelt stories, shared anonymously. Helena Dea Bala was an exhausted and isolated DC lobbyist, suffocating under the weight of her student loan debt, when she decided to split her lunch with a man who often panhandled near her office. They chatted effortlessly as they ate; there were no half-truths or white lies, and no fear of judgment. Helena felt connected and unburdened in a way she hadn't in years. Inspired, she posted an ad on Craigslist promising to listen, anonymously and for free, to whatever the speaker felt he or she couldn't tell anyone else. Emails from people desperate to connect flooded her inbox, and she listened. Within months, Helena quit her job, deferred her loans, and dove into listening full time. The forty first-person confessions in this book are vivid, intimate, and real; they range from devastating traumas, to lost loves, to reflections on hard choices. Some accounts are quotidian, like that of one increasingly estranged husband: “I want to feel that we’re not just roommates—that we’re not just waiting for the kids to grow up so that we can move on.” Others are deeply disconcerting, like that of a sex addict employed by a religious organization and several are heartening, like that of a mother who dares to hope that her daughter, born with life-threatening heart defects, will one day walk down the aisle: “Sometimes you need to have the audacity to believe that it will all be okay, that it is okay to have the same kinds of dreams as everyone else.” In its complex portrayal of the common human experience, Craigslist Confessional challenges us to explore the depths of our vulnerability and expand the borders of our empathy.
